

Researcher Roles WebQuest 2014

Geographer Role--Key Word -Location

Geographer- a person who studies the physical characteristics of a region or place

A geographer focuses on:

- locations and places around the world
- how people live and work in those places
- significance of a place's features to a society

Historian Role--Key Words -Facts and Events

Historian- a person who writes about and studies past events

A historian focuses on:

- when and where past events occur
- why and how certain events occurred
- significance of past events

Sociologist Role--Key Word -Relationships

Sociologist - a person who studies human social behavior.

A sociologist focuses on:

- how different groups of people interact with each other
- relationships within families and communities
- the significance of relationship

Archeologist Role--Key Phrase- Artifacts tell a story

Archeologist- a person who studies artifacts from the past

An archeologist focuses on:

- the remains of past human life
- artifacts like pottery, tools, and jewelry
- significance of where artifacts are found
- the story that the artifacts can tell about those who used them

